

Fraser Heights Science Academy now offering Computer Science at SFU!

Fraser Heights Integrated Math and Science Academy is excited to announce that students can now opt to take Computer Science instead of Chemistry at SFU. As our program continues to grow having the option to take Computer Science instead of Chemistry in their grade 12 year opens more doors for those interested in Computer Science, Engineering and Business. This is the first year our students have had this option and early reports have been very positive.